NOVAMELT-JOWAT BREAKS GROUND ON FACTORY EXPANSION

ARCHDALE, North Carolina, USA – August 1, 2010 – Novamelt-Jowat LLC has broken ground on a new factory expansion project. The expansion will effectively double the size of their manufacturing and storage facility. The original factory was completed and started producing finished product to customer order in early 2006, and is in addition to the customer demonstration lab, adhesive R&D, quality and testing labs, and administrative offices located next to it. The expansion should be completed by December 31st, 2010.

“We simply outgrew our current capacity and are now excited to be investing to support the growing demand of our customers” says Jim Auber, General Manager, Novamelt-Jowat LLC. “This investment underscores Novamelt’s dedication to our customers in the North, Central and Latin America North markets” continued Auber.
